

University of Montana General Education Requirements

To earn a baccalaureate degree, all students must complete successfully, in addition to any other requirements, the following General Education Requirements.

All courses taken to satisfy General Education Requirements must be taken for a traditional letter grade and C- or better grade must be earned.

Students are cautioned that approved General Education courses may change from year to year. To be used for General Education credit, a course must be listed as approved in the class schedule for the semester a student registers for it.

For more information on UM General Education Requirements visit www.umt.edu/registrar/students/generaledreq.aspx or www.umt.edu/catalog/acad/genreq/default.html.

Some courses satisfy more than one General Education group. Using one course to satisfy two different General Education group requirements is permitted. For a listing of courses which satisfy more than one General Education group requirement visit <http://www.umt.edu/catalog/acad/genreq/default.html>

*For approved writing courses visit <http://www.umt.edu/catalog/acad/genreq/default.html>

To satisfy the Modern and Classical Languages requirement, students must successfully complete an introductory sequence (101, 102 courses) in at least one foreign language (test out provisions are available, ask you advisor). Alternatively, for certain majors exceptions are granted to the Modern and Classical Language requirement. For these majors a symbolic system course may be substituted. Visit <http://www.umt.edu/catalog/acad/genreq/default.html> for a list of excepted majors and symbolic system course substitutions.
