

*CROSSING THE BRIDGE:
HOW STUDENTS MOVE FROM NOVICE TO PROFESSIONAL
BY LEADING COMMUNITY WORKSHOPS*

BEST PRACTICES GOALS

Helping students adjust to their professional roles and develop professional skills.

Best Practices, p. 170

Engaging students in the “formation of a professional identity.”

Carnegie Report, p. 158

“Achieving educational objectives effectively and efficiently.”

Best Practices, p. 168

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Mastery of an Area of Law

Translating Complex Legal Ideas into Lay Terms

Imagining Future Scenarios Based on Real Community Needs

Seeing an Issue From Various Community Perspectives

Oral Presentation Skills

Thinking on One’s Feet in Response to Questions

Service to Community

Developing Professional Relationships

THE WORKSHOP ASSIGNMENT

Analyze Case Law & Prepare Workshop Materials to Explain the Law
Prepare a Hypothetical Fact Pattern to Help Participants Practice Legal Concepts
Teach Participants the Legal Rules & Guide Participants in Small Group Work
Discuss Group Work Outcomes & Respond to Participant Questions